DATA SECURITY

Organiser shall ensure the security of the personal data and shall implement appropriate technical and organizational measures to ensure that the collected, stored and processed data are protected, in addition to preventing destruction, unauthorized use, and unauthorized alteration of the data. Organiser shall furthermore notify third parties - to whom the data subject's information is transferred - that they are obligated to meet the data security requirements.

Organiser shall ensure the prevention of unauthorized access to personal data, as well as the publication, transfer modification or erasure thereof.

Organiser shall impose the aforementioned obligation onto its employees taking part in the data processing, as well as the data processors acting under the authority of Organiser

THE RIGHTS AND LEGAL REMEDIES, COMPLAINTS OF DATA SUBJECTS

Pursuant to the GDPR, during the data processing, you may request access to the personal data and may request information about data processing (which shall be provided by Organiser within no more than 1 month), may request rectification of personal data, erasure under certain conditions, or the restriction of data processing, and - when the legal basis for data processing is performance of a contract - you have the right to data portability. When the legal basis for data processing is legal interest, you have the right to object.

You can read further information about the rights in the General privacy regulation on the website of the Festival (<https://www.strandfesztival.com/en/visitor-policy/>).

If you feel that Organiser has violated any of the legal provisions applicable to the data processing, please, contact us first, using any of the above contact information, or at the following email address: dpo@sziget.hu. If this proves to be unsuccessful, you may initiate a proceeding of the Hungarian National Authority for Data Protection and Freedom of Information (Nemzeti Adatvédelmi és Információszabadság Hatóság, NAIH, seat: Hungary, H-1055 Budapest, Falk Miksa utca 9-11.; mailing address: 1374 Budapest, Pf. 603.; email: ugyfelszolgalat@naih.hu) or seek judicial remedy.

Personal data related to children and third persons

Persons under 16 may not submit their personal data, except if they have requested permission from the person exercising parental rights. By providing your personal data to Organiser, you hereby represent and warrant that you act according to the aforementioned, and your legal capacity is not restricted with regards to the providing of data.

If you do not have the right to independently provide personal data, you shall acquire the permission of the appropriate third party (i.e. legal representative, guardian, other person – for instance consumer - you are representing) or provide another form of a legal basis to do so. In relation to this, you shall be able to consider whether the personal data to be provided requires the consent of a third party. It may happen that Organiser does not get into contact with the data subject, therefore, you are responsible for meeting all the necessary requirements and Organiser shall not be liable or bear any responsibility in this regard. Nevertheless, Organiser has the right to check and verify whether the proper legal basis is provided for the handling of data at all times. For example, if you are representing a third party – for instance a consumer – we reserve the right to request the proper authorization and/or consent of the party being represented with relation to the matter at hand.

Organiser shall do its utmost to remove all personal information provided without authorization. Organiser shall ensure that if Organiser becomes aware of this, such personal information is not forwarded to any third party or used for Organiser's own purposes. We request that you inform us immediately via our aforementioned contacts if you become aware that a child has provided any personal data about himself or herself, or any other third party has provided any personal data of you unauthorized to Organiser
